

Professional Biography

Kyle Fielding represents clients with a variety of legal issues, including many types of litigation and legal planning. He has sophisticated experience in real estate, business matters, estate planning (wills and trusts), employment disputes and discrimination, land use and property rights, personal injury, auto accidents, non-competition and trade secrets matters, and more.

Prior to joining Smith Hartvigsen, PLLC, Kyle worked in the BYU Office of the General Legal Counsel where he gained extensive experience in litigation, appellate work and general institutional legal advisement. Kyle has been a volunteer at the Utah Legal Services and the Guadalupe Legal Clinic where he provides assistance to clients with a wide range of legal problems, including divorces, protective orders, landlord/tenant issues, immigration issues, and disability issues.

Practice Areas

General Civil Litigation

Real Estate Transactions and Litigation

Business Planning and Litigation

Estate Planning (Wills, Trusts, Probate Administration, etc.)

Personal Injury (Medical Malpractice, Auto Accidents, Work-related accidents, etc.)

Employment Disputes, Non-competition Agreement and Trade Secrets Matters

Municipal Bonds and Municipal Law

Professional Memberships

2008 Utah State and Federal Courts

Education

2008 Juris Doctor, J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University, magna cum laude; Associate Editor for the BYU Law Review; Executive Editor for the BYU Journal of Public Law

2005 Bachelors, History, Brigham Young University

Interests

Kyle is an avid golfer and tennis player. He also enjoys snowboarding, cycling, and studying history.